Join author and journalist Sam Quinones and writer Gustavo Arellano for a conversation about Quinones' first book of photojournalism, "Our Lady of the Angels: The Virgin of Guadalupe on the Walls of Los Angeles," published by Angel City Press. Arellano, who wrote the book's introduction, will moderate the discussion. On storefronts, alleyways, and street corners across Los Angeles, murals of the Virgin of Guadalupe reflect the faith, identity, and culture of the city's diverse communities. Through Quinones' photographs, Our Lady of the Angels documents these urban altars and explores the intersections of spirituality, street art, and community. The collection offers a visual journey through the neighborhoods of Los Angeles, where images of the Virgin have become enduring expressions of devotion, culture, and place. Books will be available for purchase.
